III. COMMISSIONER INTRODUCTIONS

Dr. Colbert asked Commission members to introduce themselves and share the sector they were nominated to represent. Each Commissioner present introduced themselves and stated which sector they were representing.

IV. DISCUSSION ITEMS

Commission Discussion

School Safety Academy

Following up on the January 2024 presentation by Kimberly Root, Section Manager, Michigan State Police, the School Safety Academy events have begun and are going well.

The following language was approved for the program guide:

The Michigan School Safety Academy is funded through a Fiscal Year 2023 appropriation to the School Safety and Mental Health Commission and provided to the Michigan State Police, Grants and Community Services Division, Office of School Safety.

The next event will be held in Livonia, Michigan on April 9 and 10. There are 125 available seats and Commissioners were encouraged to register.

Website RFP Process

Representatives from Wayne RESA, Drew McMechan, Assistant Superintendent of Financial Services and Kurt Rheaume, Senior Executive Director of Information Technology Solution, were available to answer any questions regarding the website RFP comparisons and recommendations. No further discussion was required.

MASA School Safety Summit

Links are live for request for proposals for the event. Dr. Serena Shivers, MASA Deputy Executive Director of Professional Learning and Member Services, invited School Safety and Mental Health Commissioners to participate in the event. The Commission will be acknowledged for the assistance provided with event planning.

The MASA School Safety Summit is scheduled for April 30, 2024, with a Preconference event on April 29. Dr. Colbert shared that she plans to attend on April 30.

Suicide Commission Collaboration

The Suicide Commission Chair, Dr. James Bell, shared their commission meeting schedule. During discussion, concerns were raised regarding the scope, target and mission of the two commissions for future collaboration and/or possible transfer of initiatives.
